DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-8, 13-15 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding independent claims 1 and 13, the prior art of record does not disclose wherein an apparatus located in a first communication system calculate locally a location of a plurality of wireless base stations; and to exchange the locally calculated first service location information and second service location with respect to a second provider through an ad hoc network with a second apparatus in a second mobile communication system that is operated by a second provider, wherein the location information providing unit is configured to provide a user with information based on the first service location information and second service location information.

Fogel teaches a method for localizing a moving object using a satellite base positioning system and a short range wireless system. Fogel discloses locating nearby Bluetooth base stations using a look up table, however Fogel does not teach sharing the location information using an ad hoc network.

Eriksson discloses a method and system capable of locating at least one optimal access area or point for supporting one or more access technologies requested by the user. Access points and services are mapped and displayed to the user for selection. Although access information is shared with other Bluetooth devices within the personal area network, exchanging the locally calculated first service location information and second service location information with respect to a second provider through an ad hoc network with a second apparatus in a second communication system that is operated by the second provider, wherein the step of providing the calculated location includes providing a user with information based on the locally calculated first service location information and the second service location information.

Claims 2-8, 14, and 15 are allowed for being dependent on allowable subject matter.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
